Harvest Thanksgiving

The Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

(Proper 19)

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you and also with you.

All

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

All

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

All

It is right to praise you, Father, Lord of all creation;
in your love you made us for yourself.

When we turned away
you did not reject us,

but came to meet us in your Son.

You embraced us as your children and welcomed us to sit and eat with you.

All

In Christ you shared our life
that we might live in him and he in us.

He opened his arms of love upon the cross and made for all the perfect sacrifice for sin.

All

On the night he was betrayed,
at supper with his friends
he took bread, and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to them, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

All

Father, we do this in remembrance of him:
his body is the bread of life.

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine,
he gave you thanks, and said:
Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins;
do this in remembrance of me.

All

Father, we do this in remembrance of him:
his blood is shed for all.

As we proclaim his death and celebrate his rising in glory,
send your Holy Spirit that this bread and this wine
may be to us the body and blood of your dear Son.

All

As we eat and drink these holy gifts make us one in Christ, our risen Lord.

With your whole Church throughout the world
we offer you this sacrifice of praise and lift our voice to join the eternal song of heaven:

All

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Douglas J Clare , Churchwarden, St Mary's

A big thank you to Sue Cassons who has been quietly raising funds to support the organ refurbishment project by selling her home-made fridge magnets, which feature a view of our Church or Downton Abbey cars. Sue has now reached her objective of £2000 and now takes a well-earned rest – a great job Sue!"
